His breed interest began as a young lad spanning 46 years with BOXERS and concurrently for 24 of those years, top winning ENGLISH SETTERS under the PINETOP prefix.

The year 1995 saw the addition of top B.I.S. winning SIBERIAN HUSKIES including Supreme BIS at the 2005 Tasmanian Royal Show.

There has been 60 Champions in the three breeds from just twenty two litters produced in that period, exports to the USA, and a number of dogs and bitches imported from the USA, Canada, Great Britton and New Zealand.

In addition to the many Boxer of the year awards, Best in Show winners in the three breeds, and a record holder for the most number of Specialty Winners in Australia, he was breeder / owner / handler of the Top Dog All Breeds for two consecutive years, The Boxer, Champion Pinetop Omen, a breed record holder for the most All Breed BIS wins and 4 consecutive Club Specialty BIS.

Licensed in Australia to judge all breeds in 1985, he was given that same status in 2003 by the American Kennel Club following several engagements in that country, (#7554), an honor given to few outside of the USA, and is now recognized by The Philippine Canine Club Incorporated (PCCI-FCI) since taking up residence in that country.

A former councilor of the Canine Controlling Body, a past President Secretary and Treasurer of Boxer and English Setter Clubs, founding Chairman and President of the Adelaide Plains Kennel Club, past Vice Chair of the Judges Training Scheme in South Australia until 2003, and currently a member of the PCCI Judges Licensing and Development Committee.

Keven Has judged coast to coast in Australia including an unprecedented seven invitations to the Champion of Champions Contests, throughout New Zealand, Thailand, India, Mainland China, Indonesia, Singapore, Taiwan, and the USA, with pending assignments in several of those and other countries, in addition to a full book of appointments at home in the Philippines.
