

SIMON L. SIM

Our invited judge has been involved in the breeding and exhibition of dogs since 1974. He has owned, bred and shown Boxer, Doberman Pinscher, German Shepherd Dog, Labrador Retriever, Pug, Beagle, American Cocker Spaniel, Basset Hound, Rottweiler, and Bullmastiff. His kennel name LionBear, is one of the most successful kennels in the Philippines.

He has been actively involved in the development of the Rottweiler breed since 1987. He served as President for four of the first 10 years in existence of the Philippine Rottweiler Club, Inc. Simon has also help founded the Bullmastiff Club Federation in 2005 and has been formally affiliated with the PCCI in March of 2006.

Simon owned several Rottweilers who has become top winning dogs in the country, latest of which was Phil Hall of fame Bubbles (Loral's Fine Wine of LionBear), who was the #2 Rottweiler bitch in the nation in 2002. He also owned the all time top winning/top producing Bullmastiff, Ph Hall of Fame Tommy (Steelmaz Hamlet).

Our much-sought after judge was approved by the PCCI to judge all breeds in 2005; He was also approved to judge the Companion Dog (CD) Obedience Trial in 2001. To date, he is the only active licensed judge for both the Conformation & Obedience trial shows.

He was a past Director of the PCCI and served as Assistant Treasurer. A former Chairman of the Judge's Development & Licensing Committee. A member of the Editorial Board of the PCCI Quarterly and the Affiliated Clubs Committee. He currently serves as Adviser of the Phil. Doberman Federation, Philippine Rottweiler Club, The Phil. Golden Retriever Club & an honorary member of the Batangas Kennel Club.
